Hang Seng Alerts Customers to Fraudulent Facebook Account and Websites

Hang Seng Bank alerts members of the public to be vigilant against a recent fraudulent Hang Seng Bank Facebook account which may direct them to fraudulent websites with domain names 'https://linkr[.]bio/winnerr123' or 'https://official1[.]sitey[.]me/'. The fraudulent Facebook account which displays the Bank's logo prompts users to provide personal information and credit card information to redeem rewards through the fraudulent websites.

The Bank would like to inform members of the public that it has no connection with these fraudulent Facebook account and websites. Hang Seng will never ask customers to log in to their Personal e-Banking, or to provide personal information such as their HKID number, e-Banking login credentials, credit card credentials, one-time passwords, email address or password through embedded links, instant messaging apps or similar channels. Members of the public should not access any links when they receive phishing SMS messages or emails related to these fraudulent websites and should not disclose any personal or other information to the sites.

Below are screen captures of the fraudulent Facebook account and websites. The Bank advises members of the public that although these images are representative examples, there may be slight variations on how the fraudulent websites may be displayed on their devices.

About Hang Seng Bank

Hang Seng Bank is celebrating its 90th anniversary this year. Founded in 1933, Hang Seng Bank has continually innovated to provide best-in-class, customer-centric banking, investment and wealth management services for individuals and businesses. It is widely recognised as the leading domestic bank in Hong Kong, currently serving more than 3.5 million customers.

Combining its award-winning mobile app and strong digital capabilities with a vast network of over 260 service outlets in Hong Kong, Hang Seng offers a seamless omni-channel experience for customers to take care of their banking and financial needs anytime, anywhere.

Its wholly owned subsidiary, Hang Seng Bank (China) Limited, operates a strategic network of outlets in almost 20 major cities in Mainland China to serve a growing base of Mainland customers locally and those with cross-boundary banking needs. The Bank also operates branches in Macau and Singapore, and a representative office in Taipei.

As a homegrown financial institution, Hang Seng is closely tied to the Hong Kong community. It supports the community with a dedicated programme of social and environmental initiatives focused on future skills for the younger generation, sustainable finance and financial literacy, addressing climate change and caring for the community.

Hang Seng is a principal member of the HSBC Group, one of the world's largest banking and financial services organisations. More information on Hang Seng Bank is available at www.hangseng.com.
