

FAQ on iBond Series HK$15,000,000,000 Retail Bonds due 2024 issued by The Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China (“HKSAR”) (“iBond”)

Answers to this Frequently Asked Questions (“FAQ”) aim to give you some information on the subscription, allotment and redemption of the iBond but they are not exhaustive and are for general reference only. Investments involve risks so you must read the terms and conditions and risks disclosures as set out in the final offering documents for the iBonds for details.

Compliance with all the requirements in this FAQ does not necessarily mean an application for the iBond’s subscription or allotment or redemption will be accepted or successful. Terms and conditions applicable to the Bank’s investment services and securities account shall apply. If in doubt, please contact our Bank for details.

1. *Who is eligible to apply for iBond?

Eligible applicants are limited to those who hold a valid Hong Kong identity card. Applicants must be physically present in Hong Kong when making applications. Any person who is located within the United States or Canada, or is a U.S. person within the meaning of Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (which includes any person resident in the United States and any partnership or corporation organised or incorporated under the laws of the United States) (“U.S. Person”) or a resident of Canada, or is acting as an agent of a U.S. Person or a resident of Canada, is not allowed to apply. To apply iBond through Hang Seng Bank (the “Bank”), the applicant must be a personal customer (or the primary account holder for joint account) who holds a securities account and a HKD settlement account at our Bank.

2. *What fees will be waived for applying for iBond through Hang Seng Bank (the “Bank”)?

Service fees for subscription handling, custody*, interest collection, maturity redemption, sale through over-the-counter (OTC), transfer-in (not through the Central Clearing and Settlement System) and transfer-out (not through the Central Clearing and Settlement System) relating to the iBond will be waived by our Bank. Deposit charge for purchase order of iBond through the Hong Kong Stock Exchange will also be waived by our Bank.

*Custody fee will be waived if the account only holds non-listed bonds, iBond or Silver Bond.

3. *Can I make multiple applications?

No, you can make one application only. If you have submitted multiple applications to the HKSAR Government through more than one placing banks or designated securities brokers, all of your applications will be rejected.

4. *Can an authorized person apply for iBond on behalf of the account holder?

Yes, an authorized person can visit any of our branches to apply for iBond on behalf of the account holder, but the applicant's name and HKID number of the relevant application will be submitted in accordance with that of the account holder's.

5. *When will I know the allotment result? When will I receive the iBond successfully allotted to me and the refund of my application money?

Our Bank will notify you of the allotment result via SMS (if you have registered for our e-Banking service with your mobile phone number maintained in our Bank's record) in the evening of 21 June 2021 and via e-Advice or mail as soon as practicable. The iBond successfully allotted to you will be deposited into your securities account at our Bank on 23 June 2021. The refund of your application money (if any) will also be credited to your HKD settlement account at our Bank at or before 7:00pm on 23 June 2021.

6. *How can I sell the allotted iBond?

You can sell the allotted iBond through the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, or over-the-counter (OTC) to our Bank. However, this does not guarantee an active secondary trading market for iBond.
